WOMEN'S GROUP

WORSHIP - DRAWING NEAR

We're studying the topic of 'worship' in our online women's group. Since it's such a dense topic, we've broken it down, and we started with worship as a way of drawing near to God.

When you think of worship, what comes to mind? Music? Meditation? Raising your hands?

All that may be things you can do during worship, but worship is a way of life. At Life With A Purpose, when we think of worship, we think of the woman who broke open an alabaster jar of expensive oil and used her hair to wipe Jesus's feet with it.

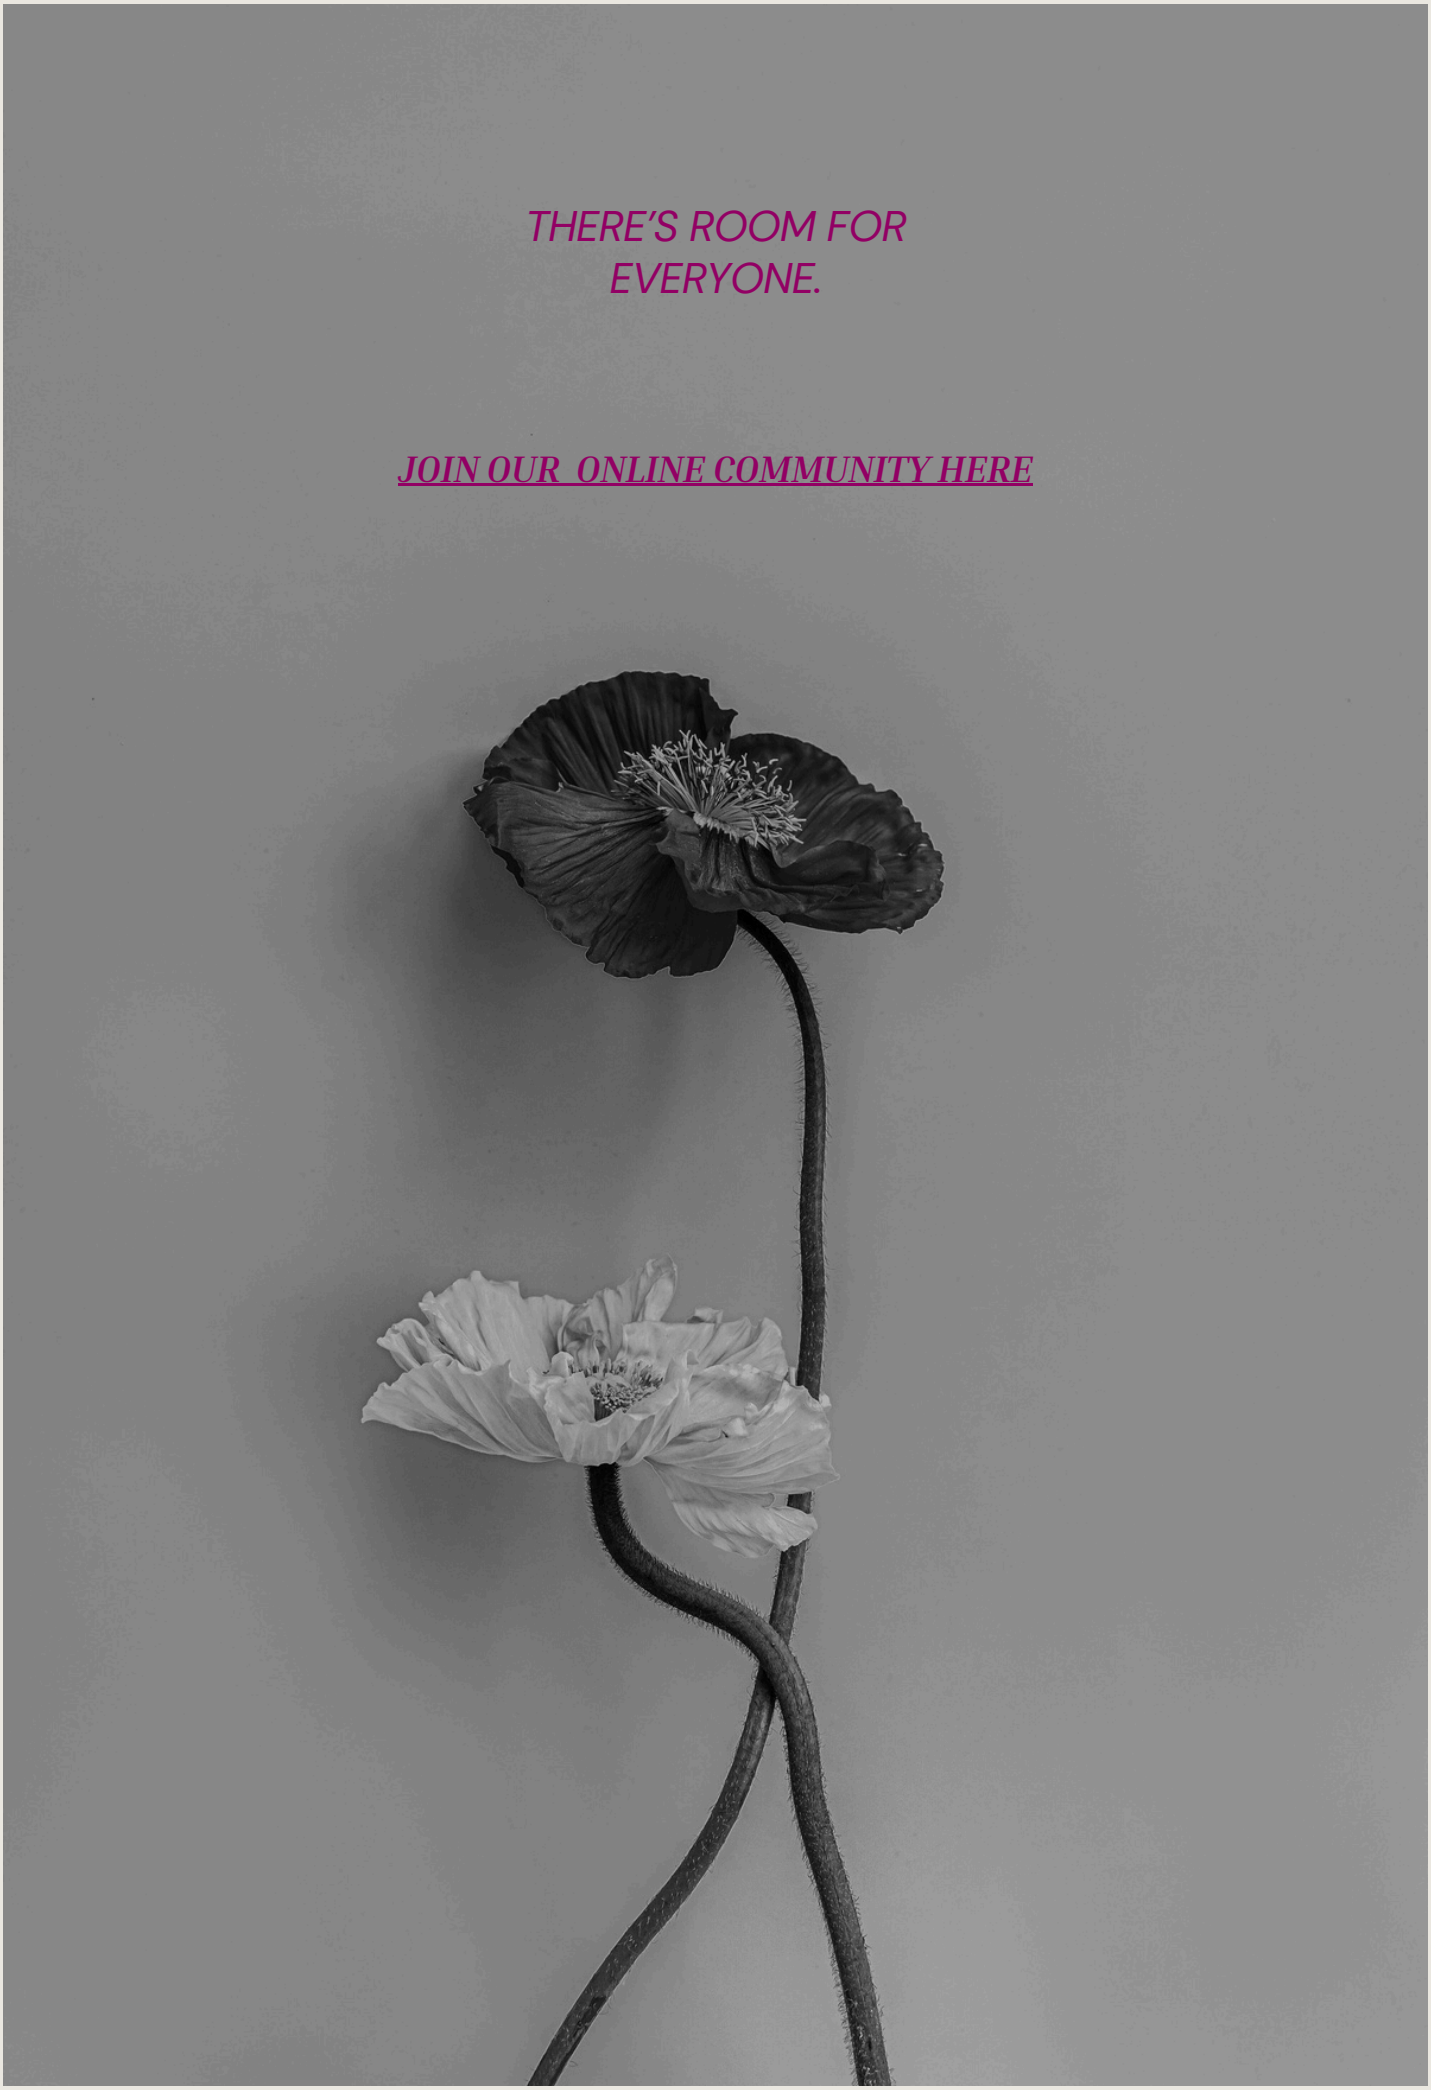

That's worship - giving it all to God, no matter the cost (especially when the cost is high).

Join us our online women's group, where we'll dive into this a bit more. For now, here's a copy of our bible study guide.

IT'S A DATE!

Our Women's Retreat
Is Just Around The Corner!

If He cares for the lilies...

...how much more will He care for you

God is the ultimate provider, and He moves today just as He did in the Bible. If you or anyone you know needs to let some things go and let God care for you, this retreat might be for you. The link below will take to you our events page. If this is for you, we'd love to see you there.

See you there,

DEVOTIONAL
THE POTTER KNOWS

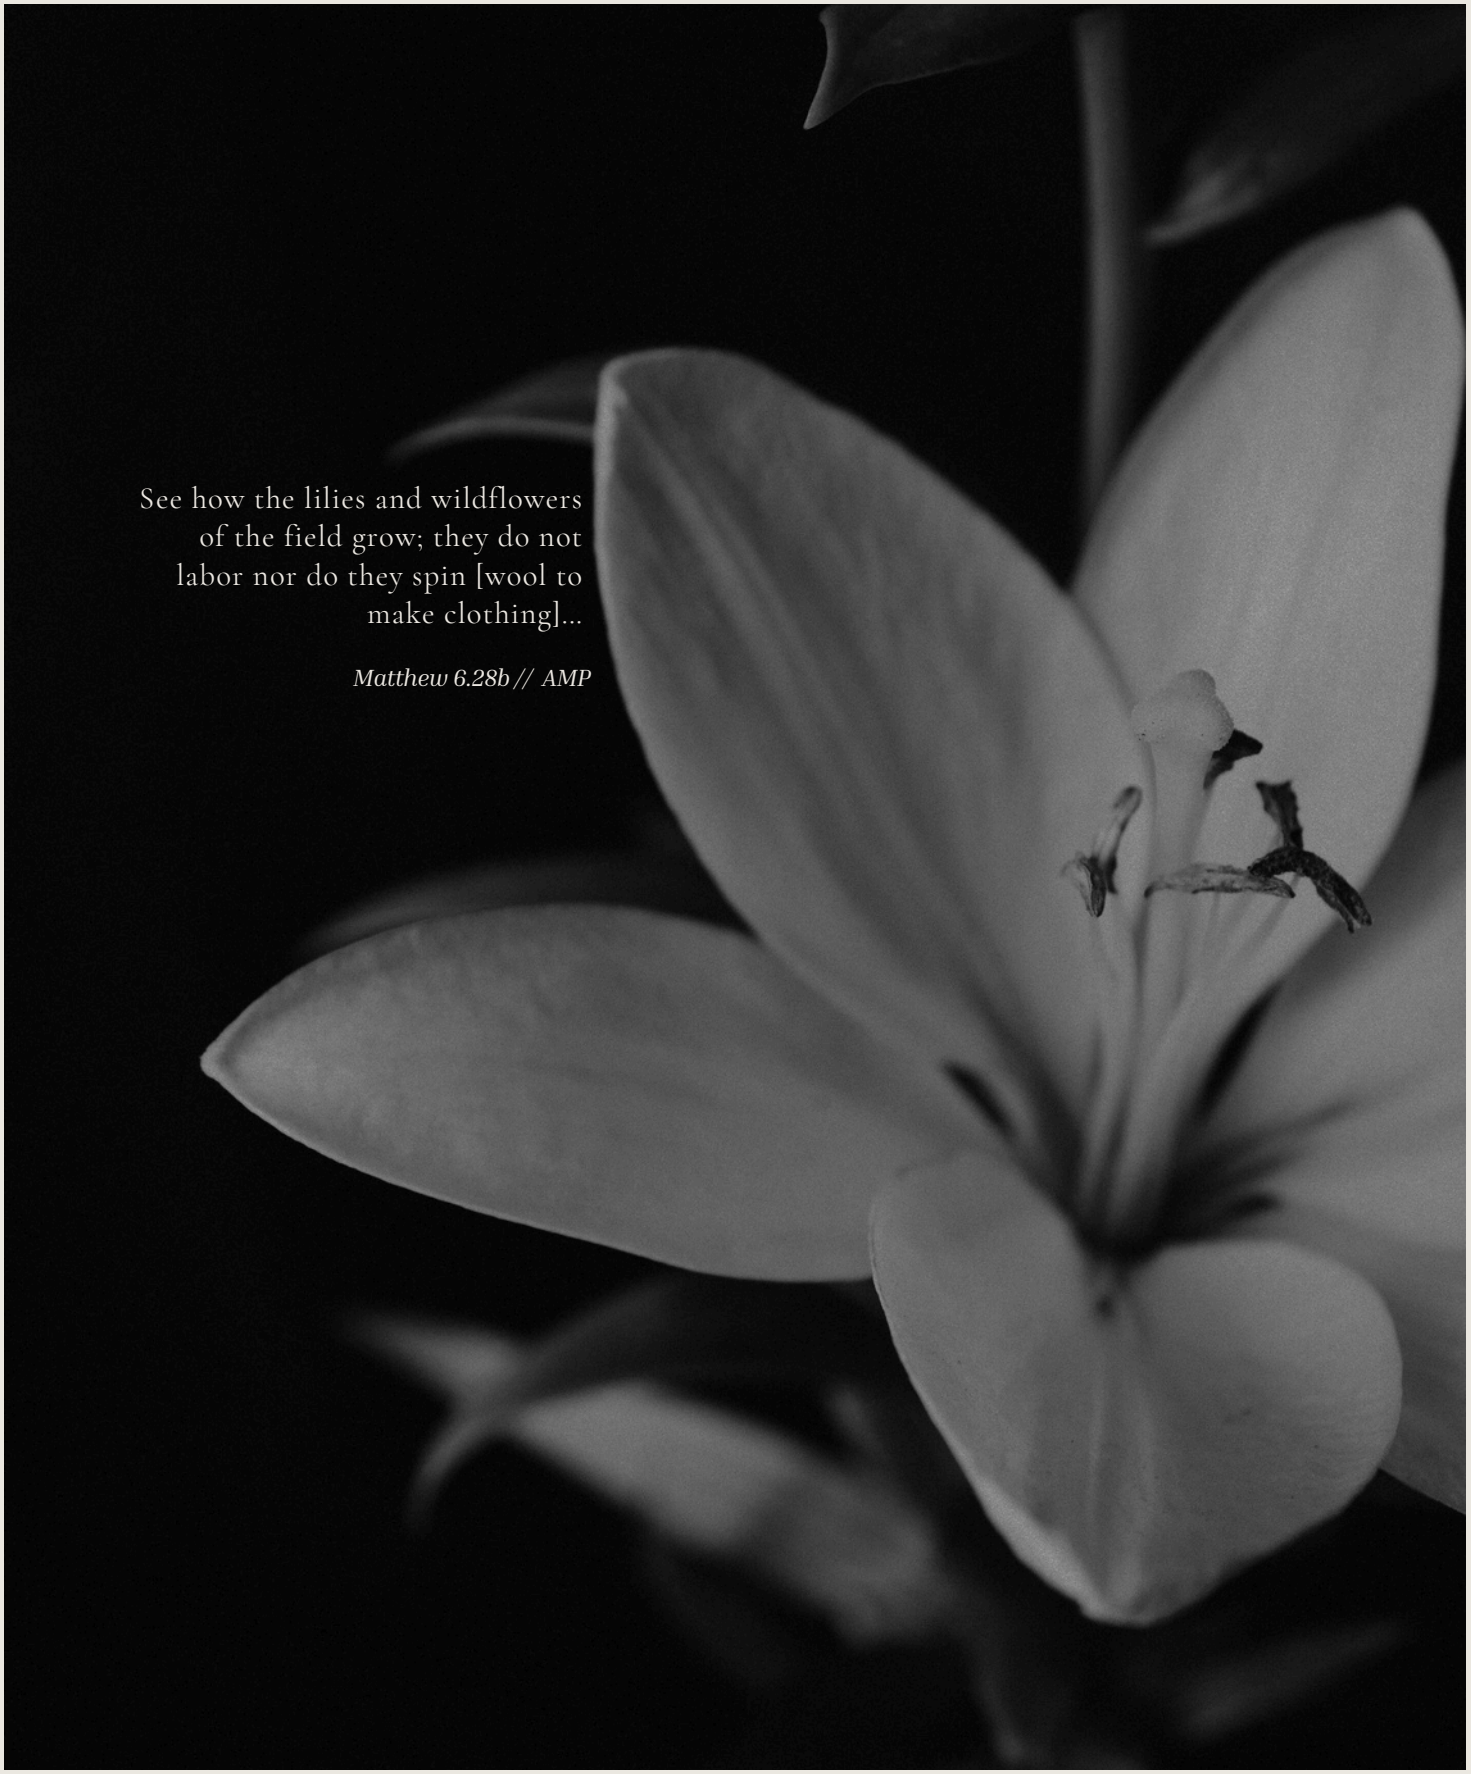

Yet, O Lord, You are our Father;
We are the clay, and You our Potter,
And we all are the work of Your hand.
Isaiah 64.8 // AMP

This verse is such a beautiful and sobering reminder that God created us. As the Potter, He knows what He created. He knows who He created. He notices every single chip and crack that forms long before it appears on the surface. Moreover, He cares that the chips and cracks are there, and He wants to fix them. He longs to. Often times, the chips and cracks we see cause us to want to hide them away away from sight. God is patiently waiting for you to bring those pieces to Him so He can put them back together. If you have chips, cracks, and broken chunks, take them to the Potter Who made you and longs to fix them. He loves you, and wants to make you whole. It is His joy to make you whole in Him.

Yet, O Lord, You are our Father;
We are the clay, and You
our Potter,
And we all are the work of
Your hand.

Isaiah 64.8 // AMP

See how the lilies and wildflowers of the field grow; they do not labor nor do they spin [wool to make clothing]...
Matthew 6.28b // AMP

So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.
2 Corinthians 12.9b // NLT

"My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness."
2 Corinthians 12.9a // NLT
