RETREAT RECAP

Our first retreat is done...but not dusted (just yet).

We're still absolutely MIND-BLOWN by how good God is, and how He showed up for us and everyone that attended.

Our retreat started off as an instruction from Heaven. We're slowly learning that obedience is our job and the fruit that comes from it is in God's hands, so we set to work. Piece by piece, layer by layer, the Master Coordinator and Planner (Yahweh) showed us how He had been weaving this event together and planning each detail before He even invited us to participate in it!

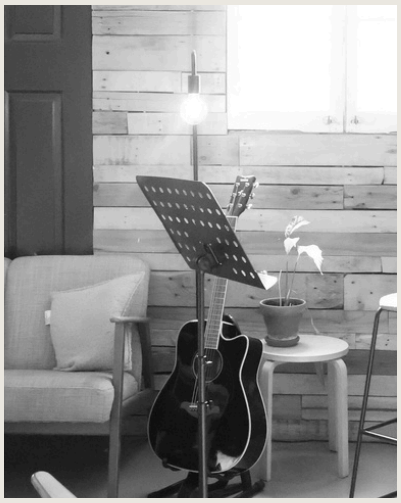

We started with a few nibbles and chats, and had some stripped-back worship time. We talked for a bit, but the highlight of the day was when we all met heart-to-heart with Jesus during worship, talking, and painting.

Meeting such brave women was an honour. We hope to see you at our next retreat or event!

Share Your Story

We know and believe that God is at work, and that He is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

We want people to be inspired by testimonies of the God of the Bible, Who moves just as mightily now as He did for the Israelites in the Old Testament and for the woman with the issue of blood in the New Testament.

If you have a story to share, we'd love to speak with you. Our process will involve us talking first to see if we'd be a good fit. If all goes well, we'd love to feature you in an article to promote the goodness of God.

Give praise to the Lord, proclaim His name;
make known among the nations
what He has done. - 1 Chronicles 16:8

is LIVE!

Many years ago, in Harare (Zimbabwe), I was sitting in either homework or detention class writing.

I had spent years, like everyone else my age, perfecting that letter 'S' we all drew (you know the one). It was a sunny day as I sat in class. I heard a still and gentle voice say, "Why don't you start writing your 'r's backwards?" I pondered for a split second, and started writing them backwards from that very moment. I had an innate desire to connect my letters and write in cursive when everyone else favoured print. Little did I know that all this while, the Holy Spirit was training me to be a calligraphy artist.

Side Note: I had NO idea that what I was doing was called 'calligraphy' until I travelled to Australia many years later and stumbled on a post on Instagram years after arriving.

I tried to use this gift in various ways. How couldn't I? I know that there's nothing I could have done to learn or earn this. It was a gift. Now, here I am today, sharing this gift with you. I've created Purpose Print Club for a few reasons.

1. To serve Elohim (Jesus, Yahweh, the Holy Spirit) and use this gift for God's glory
2. To serve you by pointing you to Jesus, encouraging you with the Word of God
3. For you to gift this to loved ones or those who don't know Jesus (call it a conversation starter or a seed).

GOOD READS

If you're wondering where the biblical perspective of modesty lines in the modern age, we have a resource for you!

ModBod is a book that explores biblical modesty through the perspective of who Jesus is in you.

Visit our store to explore both editions of this book!

DEVOTIONAL SOMETHIN' NEW

For I am about to do something new.
See, I have already begun! Do you not see it?
I will make a pathway through the wilderness.
I will create rivers in the dry wasteland.
Isaiah 43.19 // NLT

"Something, old. Something new..." We've all heard this common wedding phrase. This applies to us, too, when God is doing something new in our lives. Something old almost always comes back. This is usually a trap set by the enemy of our souls. You might be wondering, "Why can't I just move forward or let this go?"

The Bible teaches us to be transformed by the renewing of the mind (Romans 12.2). This is one of the keys you're going to need in order to have a clear and sound mind to perceive what God is doing in this season. The good news is that God will always make a way when things seem dim, so trust in Him.

Trust in His Word, and in the leadership and wisdom of His Holy Spirit. Be renewed by the Word (read your Bible). He loves you, and He is faithful.

The flowers are springing up,
the season of singing
birds has come,
and the cooing of
turtledoves fills the air.

Songs of Solomon 2.12 // NLT

Look at the lilies and how they grow. They don't work or make their clothing, yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are.
Luke 12.27 // NLT
